

A Column of Hot Water One Hundred Feet High.

One of the most singular natural phenomena in this section of Montana is the formation of two geysers in the strip of country as the "Sag," about a mile and a half from Mr. Patterson's ranch on the Shoshone. It was first seen about a month ago, but not until lately has it assumed proportions which constitute its wonderful formation. It is situated in a small canyon running out from the wall of rocks on the east side of Alkali lake. Two geysers have appeared, one of them being of monstrous proportions, throwing up a column of hot water and steam over one hundred feet high, the other spouting about fifty feet, but with a larger proportion of water; diameter, about four inches. They are intermittent in character and are active during the morning hours, about eight or nine o'clock. The formation of the country is a sandstone and gneiss and has all the appearance of being an ancient river bed. What has produced this curious phenomenon it is, of course, only useless to speculate, as there is no evidence of ancient volcanic activity and no hypothesis can be formed which will account for it.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are certain to give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Catarrh, Consumptive and Throat Diseases. For thirty years the Trochies have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. They are not new or untried but having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Public speakers and Singers use them to clear and strengthen the Voice. Sold at twenty-five cents a box everywhere.

On Time as Usual.

Jones now goes to business regularly. That attack of Neuralgia that laid him up, and which was only a fresh visitation of an old enemy, disappeared, because he took a friend's advice and used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Rheumatic pain, cuts, bruises throat and lung complaints, etc., are invariably conquered by it. For sale by J. C. Saur.

FASHION NOTES.

Linen lawns are shown in stylish polka dots. The novel blue is called porcelain blue. Very wide ribbons will be worn on the new bonnets. Mahogany red shades are seen in the Tuscan straws. Many shades of one color are seen in the latest millinery. The Jersey waists are expected to grow in favor in the spring. A novelty in round hats has the Marie Stewart point in front. Red and yellow are the conspicuous colors in spring millinery. Open lace-like straws will be used in bonnets during the summer. Amber or shaded effects but fair to be very popular the coming season. Flower pompons will take the place of the silk ones worn this winter. New ornaments of old gold, steel, and red bronze take no antique styles. The new small bonnets are laden with trimmings of Alaskan bow shape. Plaids in the new gingham are somewhat large, and French designs. Black kid gloves are laced on the back with gold cord for dress occasions. Steel and silver beaded laces are conspicuous among the new millinery fabrics. Reseda is the new shade of mignonette, and contrasts pretty with porcelain blue. Many different shades of one color are used in combination in the new costumes.

Good Advice.

If you keep your stomach, liver and kidneys in perfect working order, you will prevent and cure by far the greater part of the ills that afflict mankind in this or any section. There is no medicine known that will do this as quickly or surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic, which will secure a perfectly natural action of these important organs without interfering in the least with your daily duties. See adv.

The Melancholy Dane.

Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, would not have been dubbed the "Melancholy Dane" if he had known Dyspepsia was all that ailed him, and that all that he needed was a supply of Spring Bilestones, a sure cure for Dyspepsia, Bilestones, Indigestion and other Diseases of that description. Price, 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.
